

PABLO RUEDA

Junior Front-end Developer

PROFILE

In my first day studying my MSc in Statistics I learnt about R, falling in love with coding. Since then, I have never stopped developing new coding skills. Currently, I would like to focus on a front-end path with React.

You can find my personal website portfolio at: <https://pablorueda.com/>

PROJECTS

Psychologist website

Freelance project for a psychologist. I used the Gatsby / React framework, with CSS, SASS and Material Ui for styling. I first designed it on Figma, created the logo on InkScape, searched for the images on pexels and finally code everything from scratch.

Pacman Web App

Classic Pacman game build on Javascript, CSS (+SASS), HTML and Materialize. Created to put in practise my Object Oriented Programming and DOM manipulation knowledge.

Fitness Plus

Web-app build using React, Javascript and CSS (+ SASS). It uses React context and hooks to manage the information through the different components.
